

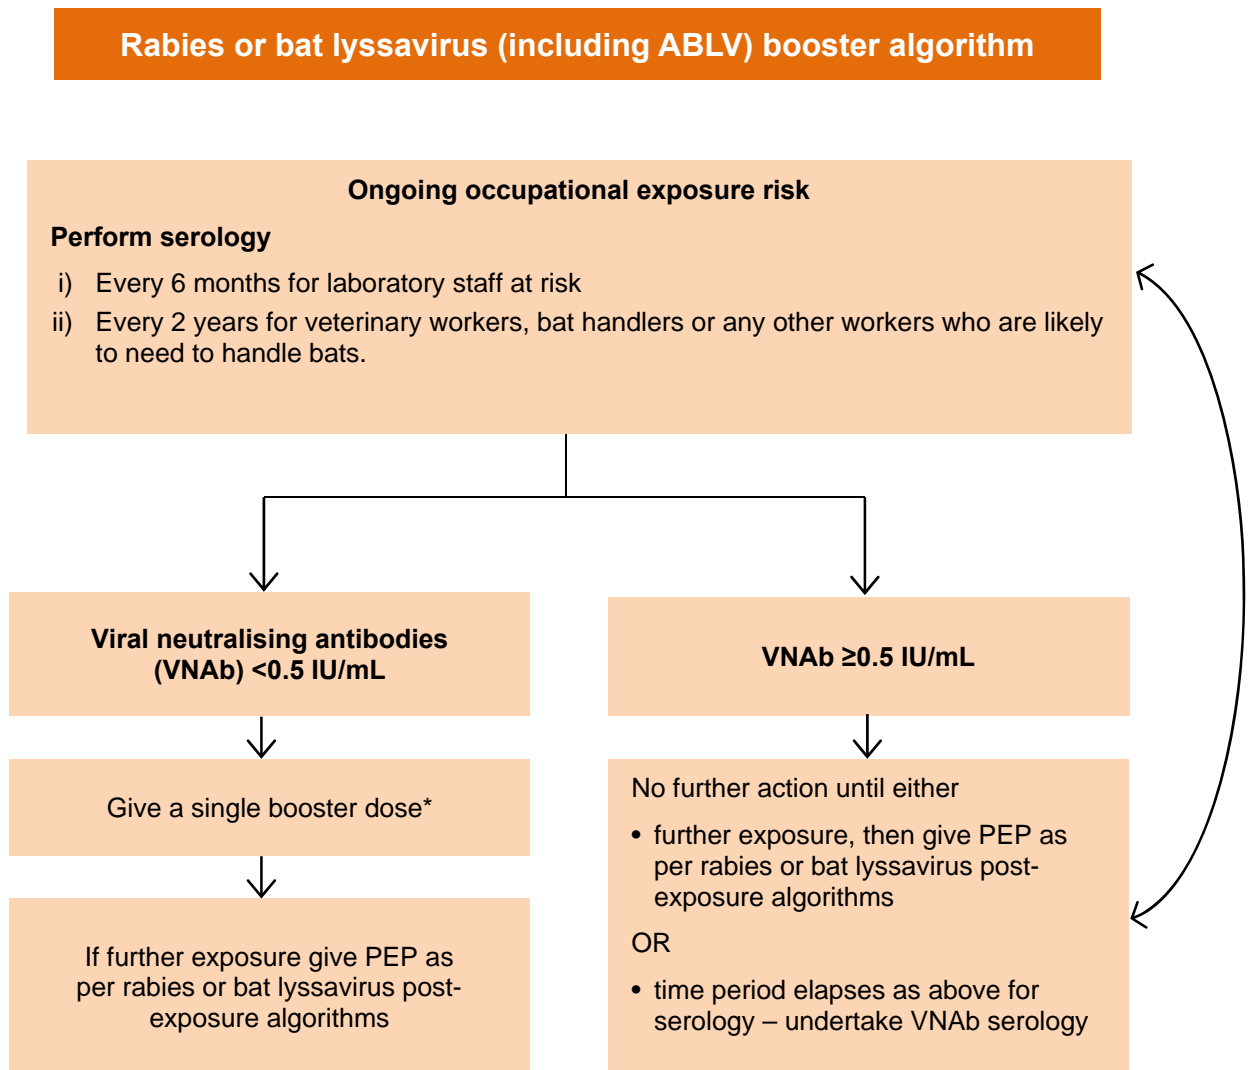

Figure 4.16.3: Booster algorithm for persons at ongoing risk of exposure to either rabies or other lyssaviruses, including Australian bat lyssavirus (ABLV)

* Immunocompromised patients' serology should be checked 14 to 21 days post booster dose and a further dose offered if the result remains $<0.5\text{ IU/mL}$.